

SAVES NEGROES FROM UNDERTOW

Hero Risks His Life in Rescuing Sailors From Death in the Ocean.

DESPERATE FIGHT

Life Saver Brings Three Unconscious Men From a Wreck, Then Continues Work.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 12.—Plunging into the boiling surf at the risk of his own life, William Capps, lifesaver of the Sea Tack station, rescued three negro sailors from the wrecked barge Georgia. The barge was driven ashore near Virginia beach in a gale of seventy-two miles an hour. Capt. George E. Evans of the Georgia and another sailor were drowned.

Capps was patrolling his section of the beach alone when the Georgia struck the beach. Immediately the craft began to break up, and the surf was soon filled with planks and timbers. In the midst of the wreckage Capps saw one of the sailors a hundred yards from the shore. He plunged into the boiling surf and after half an hour's battle brought the unconscious man to land.

Hard Work for Hero. He had not recovered his breath before he discerned through a rift in the spume another form and once more he went into the surf. This time, by reason of his exhaustion, his struggle was a harder one but he eventually succeeded in saving the man.

Placing both men under the lee of a cliff, he started back to the station to give the alarm, when he saw the third sailor in the waves, and for a third time plunged in and brought an unconscious man ashore.

Capps did not cease his work until all three men had been carried to the station, and at midnight he resumed his regular trick at patrolling the storm-swept coast.

Passengers in Panic. The passenger steamer Hamilton reached Norfolk after a terrible experience in the gale. The suffering of the passengers, particularly those in the steerage, was extreme. Locked in the steerage many foreigners, men, women and children, became panic-stricken. Many of them were bruised by the tossing of the boat and three received fractured limbs. Among the first-class passengers the fear of death in the storm was as great as among those below. Life preservers were worn constantly by nearly everyone, and some women became hysterical and collapsed. Few on board expected the Hamilton would survive the blow.

MILK DEALER VIOLATES LAWS

Was Arrested and Fined in the Beloit Court on Thursday Last.

(Special To The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., Oct. 11.—Charles Peterson, a Beloit city milk dealer, was arrested for selling adulterated milk on complaint made under direction of State Dairy and Food Commissioner Emery, pleaded guilty in the municipal court at Beloit, Thursday, and was fined $25 and costs, with the alternative of 60 days in the county jail.

The commissioner is after illicit milk dealers, and similar prosecutions have been frequent of late, and almost uniformly successful. During the past six months about thirty prosecutions for the sale of adulterated milk have been made, and in all but two cases the men arrested have been convicted and fined.

SPOON'S OFFICE WAS BROKEN INTO

Last Night, Thieves Entered Through Rear Window, But Secured No Booty.

J. F. Spoon's office on North River street, was entered by burglars last night and generally upset, although no money was taken. The thief got through the window back of the scales, threw the scale weights out on the ground, ransacked the desk and scattered things around the room so that when the office was opened this morning, it presented a scene of wild confusion. Some of the furniture was badly broken and sewing articles belonging to the stenographer were torn and scattered around the room. It is thought that the attempted burglary was committed about eleven o'clock last evening, as one of the teamster heard a commotion at the office at that time but thought it was one of the other employees.

WOMAN POLITICIAN IS A DISTURBER

Princess Theresa Wilcox Threatens to Disrupt Native Home Rule Party in Hawaii.

Honolulu, Oct. 12.—The native home rule party is threatened with the fury of a woman. The woman is Princess Theresa Wilcox, wife of the former delegate, Robert Wilcox, now a candidate on the native ticket for county sheriff in the island of Oahu.

Princess Theresa threatens to bolt the ticket of her party. She declares the party has nominated men not fit for places and she does not propose to support them. She insists that the party endorse three of the republican candidates.

Mrs. Wilcox is admitted to be a woman of remarkable strength of mind and she has the ability to lead her people. She is a descendant of the great King Kamehameha, who captured the Hawaiian Islands one by one and united them under an absolute monarchy.

CZAR ABANDONS TRIP TO ROME

Russian Ruler Fears That Authorities Cannot Protect His Life.

London, Oct. 12.—A dispatch from Vienna says it is officially announced that the czar has abandoned his proposed visit to Rome. He expressed the belief that his life would not be safe and that the authorities were powerless to give him adequate protection.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS AT EVANSVILLE

Were Well Entertained Saturday—Mrs. T. L. Mason Recites an Original Poem.

Mrs. T. L. Mason of this city recited an original poem during the program of the entertainment given by the Royal Neighbors at Evansville Saturday evening, when the members of the society in that city entertained delegations from a number of places.

The visiting ladies were from Broadhead, Edgerton, Brooklyn, Albany and Footville. The first part of the entertainment by the hostesses was exemplification of floor work and this was followed by a program of much interest. Some of the numbers were the singing of America, a special drill by the Edgerton camp and an original selection by members from each delegation present.

At the conclusion of the program, a delightful banquet was served by the Evansville ladies. At the center tables were seated the oracles from the different camps and the supreme receiver of the order. The Janesville delegation returned last evening, delighted with their reception which they will long remember. Among those present who went from this city were Mesdames Lyman Morse, George Tanberg, Geo. Jones, Ida Tucker, Chas. Kemmer, Geo. Rathjen, Wm. Huyke, J. W. How, Jno. Wood, T. D. Donnelly, T. Peterson, Byron Walker, C. C. Crisp, T. L. Mason, O. Mable, George Barrlage, L. B. Caniff, Wm. Deltner, W. Cochrane, A. Anderson, M. P. Birmingham, A. Richter, W. Has-kins, Misses Grace Mable, Gertie Gray, Minnie Peterson, Messrs. H. D. Murock, T. L. Mason, O. Mable, George Barrlage, Geo. Jones.

MANIAC WITH GUN

Winchester in Hands of Mad Man Causes Alderman Connell and Waiter Armfield to Take To Shelter Late Last Night At a Restaurant.

"I am the gamekeeper you've been expecting—I want all I can get for twenty-five cents and I want it quick!" said a big burly man with a battered hat and a rifle under his arm, as he entered "Connell's" restaurant on East Milwaukee street and addressed the waiter, Monroe Armfield. It was after midnight, and Alderman Edward Connell, who was sitting at the counter, and the waiter, were the only two persons in the restaurant.

At Point of Gun Mr. Armfield started to say that he couldn't serve a customer all that he could eat for twenty-five cents, when the stranger seized the rifle which he had placed on the counter and pointing it at Armfield began to name his bill of fare.

Alderman in Range Alderman Connell cast a glance over his right shoulder and perceived that he was directly in range. The Winchester rifle with which the unwelcome visitor was toying was pointed directly at the back of his neck as well as at the heart of the offending waiter. It was time to bestir himself and peace measures seemed advisable under the circumstances.

Connell's Diplomacy The range soon shifted, however. Mr. Armfield, still faithful to his employer, continued to protest that he could not fill the order for twenty-five cents and began to crouch out of range, when the highwayman climbed the counter and drew another head on him. The panorama had reached this stage when Alderman Connell interfered. "Give him all he wants and I'll see that everything is settled all right," said he to the waiter.

Meal for an Army The "gamekeeper" shifted an uneasy glance from one to the other and then, reassured at the sight of the waiter preparing to fill his order, laid down the gun. He repeated the names of the viands that would please "His Gameship." The list was a long one and included everything in the restaurant besides numerous things that were not.

Officers to the Rescue Mr. Connell finished his repast with feigned relish and enjoyment, yawned, and said that he guessed he'd go home and turn in. He waited a moment to see what effect this remark would have on the unwelcome visitor. The latter's stolid face betrayed no sign and he did not reach for the gun. Mr. Connell yawned again and left his chair.

There was no movement for the gun. He then walked slowly to the door, opened it, and stepped out. On the sidewalk he quickened his steps. No officers were to be found on the east side of the river so he hastened to the Grand Hotel where he found Night Watchman Miles Cox.

A Fierce Struggle Officer Cox first went to the city hall and left word for Officer John Brown who happened to be sleeping there to follow him, and then hastened to the scene of the trouble. He entered the restaurant quietly and sat down at the counter. Some of the "Gamekeeper's" huge bill-of-fare had been served and he was devouring it with apparent content. Officer Cox awaited a favorable moment, and then, springing from his chair, seized the dangerous visitor from behind. A terrible struggle ensued, the highwayman being almost successful several times in his efforts to get hold of the rifle.

Pinned to Floor It was all over in a few moments but the combat was a spectacular one while it lasted. With one final effort Officer Cox threw the hulking form to the floor and held the man there until the arrival of Officer Brown. The latter appeared in a short time and the all-around bad man was handcuffed and taken to the jail.

Blacksmith by Trade A sum amounting to about eight dollars in small change was found upon his person. This morning he gave his name as Richard James Lester and showed the initials tattooed on his arm. He said that he was a blacksmith in the employ of Edward Moseley and lost his job there Friday. He came here from New Hampton, Iowa, and had been in Janesville since April 6. His mother, Mrs. Henry Hapstock, residing in Marengo, McHenry county, Illinois, had sent him some money and he decided to walk down that way Saturday night.

Held Up a Farmer He said that he went to his room in the Monaghan boarding house and secured his rifle and set out. On the road he met a man who was attempting to drive a horse. "The fellow was too drunk and when he saw me he got out and made me a present of it. It was going back towards Janesville, and wouldn't travel the other way." This is Lester's story. The report that reached the officials was that he stopped a rig being driven by an Edgerton farmer and threw the driver out. The rig was left at Ryan's livery stable after his return to the city.

The Only Gamekeeper "When I drove into town I saw signs pasted all over building that said 'Coming—The Gamekeeper.' Who could that gamekeeper be if it wasn't me? It was me, and I knew it. Then I drank some beer and that is all I remember about it."

Probably Demented The officials think that Lester is demented. Inquiries at the place where he was employed revealed the fact that he had been acting queerly for some time past. He had a habit of lighting his lamp at all times of the night. Since inventing a "talking whistle" a few weeks ago he has been no good for work. His mail was addressed to R. J. Lawrence. He is reported to have confided in one of the men who knew him that he had served a prison term in Minnesota and had been in the reform school of Illinois.

JAPANESE TALK WAR EARNESTLY

BELIEVE IT WOULD GIVE THEM MUCH PRESTIGE. RESERVES ARE CALLED OUT

It is Now Expected That China Will Cooperate with the Mikado's Troops.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Port Arthur, Oct. 12.—The most warlike dispatches are received here today from Tokio. They say the Japanese press is pointing out that if Japan engages in a war with Russia it will not be on account of Manchuria, but in order to establish Japan among the continental powers. Japan's preparations are more active than ever. Part of the reserve has been called out. The Mikado has sent a personal adjutant to northern China to inspect places suitable for the Japanese bases also to ascertain if China will co-operate with Japan against Russia. Japan has organized a huge spy system to watch Russians.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 12. Efforts are being made to complete the crews of the Russian fleet in the Pacific ocean. A large number of officers and men are being sent from Cronstadt daily.

Woman in Politics. Miss Ethel Bailey of Crystal Springs, Miss., sister of Senator Bailey of Texas has entered Mississippi politics as a candidate for state librarian.

Business Importance: The Imperial band met at their rooms at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the occasion being a special meeting of the organization. Business of considerable importance was transacted.

TEN YEARS OF BAD WEATHER COMING

Eminent Meteorologist Consults Sun-Spots and Makes Prediction.

London, Oct. 12.—There was heavy rainfall here today, the precipitation amounting to more than an inch. In connection with the recent deluges there has been not only a magnificent halo round the sun for some days past, but large spots have been observed on the disc. These have interested astronomers and meteorologists as being the most prominent that have been seen in five years.

A group of large spots with a diameter apparently equal to one-tenth of the sun's, appeared a week ago, and is now so plainly visible on the southern hemisphere that, weather permitting, it may be seen by the eye aided by only a piece of smoked or colored glass. On Friday this disturbance extended over about 130,000 miles of the solar surface.

One eminent meteorologist, discussing the phenomena, said he believed that bad weather would characterize the next ten years.

SPANISH SOCIALISTS IN A FIERCE RIOT

Four Were Killed and Twenty-Nine Injured in a Clash at Bilbao.

Madrid, Oct. 12.—A socialist demonstration of 20,000 workmen took place at Bilbao today, during which a serious collision between the demonstrators and the clericals, with the result that four persons were killed and twenty-nine injured.

COLOMBIA AWAITS A NEW REVOLT

Presidential Candidate Is Said To Be Planning Active Rebellion.

Panama, Colombia, Oct. 12.—It is reported that General Pedro Del Ospina, who has been proposed by the Carlos party as a presidential candidate, angered by President Morraquin's opposition, has become seriously implicated in a projected revolutionary outbreak. General Benjamin Herrera and other prominent liberals are said to be associated with him. If the report is true, this is General Ospina's second attempt at an insurrection, for in 1902, while holding the post of war minister, he was banished because of his complicity in a scheme to overthrow President Morraquin. It is said the concentration of Venezuelan troops on the Colombian frontier is part of the revolutionary plan. President Castro's idea being to prevent the government from moving the northern army of 10,000 men against the rebels.

STATE NOTES

M. T. Carpenter, an old resident of Beloit, died today from self-inflicted wounds with suicidal intent two weeks ago. He was well-to-do, but was in ill-health when he shot himself.

Register of Deeds Lanson of Superior is making a campaign to compel physicians to register births, which they have neglected to do heretofore.

Superior business men are planning a meeting to find a way to get rid of one of the telephone systems of that city, as they object to paying two companies for service.

District Attorney Buckmaster, at Kenosha, has announced that the Gaster case would not be given a new trial until the March term of court, when Judge Williams of Milwaukee will be called in to hear it.

Rockford, Ill., officers visited Kenosha in search of Clara and Mary Berry, two young women who recently disappeared from Rockford, and who were thought to have followed a theatrical company, but the officers failed to find them.

John Sundt of Superior has left for Brazil with sawmill machinery to cut out the timber on his property, which is believed to be rich in diamonds. He has made arrangements to ship diamond making machinery from Milwaukee to start work on the property.

The police will tomorrow cause the arrests of several members of a leading men's club of Racine, who at an early hour Sunday morning, upon being refused admission to a disreputable place, drove in the door by using a railroad tie.

BISMARCK MEMORIAL UNVEILED AT POSEN

Many Notables From Distant Lands Present at Interesting Ceremony.

Posen, Prussian Poland, Oct. 12.—A memorial to Bismarck was unveiled here today in the presence of Prince and Princess Herbert Bismarck, Count Kantzau, Baron Von Kneiphofen, Baron Von Hammerstein and the local authorities. Maj. von Tiedmann Seehorn, the chairman of the memorial committee, delivered a speech in eulogy of Bismarck. A banquet followed at which Baron Von Hammerstein spoke.

Men's Meeting at Y. M. C. NEW MOVE ON RUSSIA'S PART

The Czar Announces That the Treaty Has Lapsed, and Retains Hold on All Manchuria.

London, Oct. 12.—Advisers from the far east state that M. Lessar, the Russian minister at Peking, formally announced that the Manchurian convention has lapsed.

JAPAN NOW READY

The Little Nation Will Make a Gallant Battle Against the Bear of the Russias.

The news from Port Arthur, coming from Chefoo, directly across the gulf, seems to indicate that Japan and Russia are perilously near to hostilities.

Prepare for Hostilities: A dispatch from Chefoo, dated Saturday, stated that the Russian fleet, ninety warships in all, had cleared from Port Arthur, and that it was expected that Japan would declare hostilities on Sunday, on the expiration of her ultimatum to Russia. It was also reported that Japan was landing troops at Ma-San-Pho, and that Russia had embarked a number of field guns at Port Arthur for an unknown destination.

Another dispatch from Chefoo, dated Oct. 11, says: "The situation is unchanged. All is quiet at Port Arthur. Hostilities are still believed to be imminent. It is asserted that the Russians have fixed Friday next for their own movement."

Chinese Merchants Leave: "There is an exodus of Chinese merchants from the Yalu valley. They are arriving at Chefoo."

A Singapore dispatch says that the British admirals of the China, Australian and East Indian squadrons have arrived at that port and will assemble aboard H. M. S. Glory to discuss the questions of naval concentration and strategy in the far east.

It is pointed out that Japan is withdrawing her treaty rights in landing troops at Ma-San-Pho, as Corea has conceded Japan a piece of territory there in connection with the building of a railway. Russia, therefore, cannot assume that the landing of troops there is an act of war.

TWILIGHT CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

The First Session of the Year at the Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tomorrow evening the opening meeting of the Twilight club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building. Later Topics The following topics have been chosen for the later meetings: November—Wisconsin Railroad Rules. December—Modern Literature. January—Resources of Wisconsin. February—Emigration. March—Psychical Science. April—(Ladies' night) Fads and Fashions.

ASSESSMENTS ARE HIGH FOR EIGHT

That Number of Banks and Firms Amount to One-Tenth the Total Levy.

Eight of the largest taxpayers will hand over to the city this year about one-tenth of the entire amount of city taxes to be collected, the sum of their assessed valuation amounting to over one million dollars. In exact figures it is $1,212,490. The three banks are assessed a total of $442,350 and three local corporations a total of $480,000. These are the New Gas Light Co., $200,000; Janesville Water Co., $180,000, and the Janesville Machine Co., $100,000. The banks are assessed as follows: First National, $192,350; Rock County National, $150,000; and Merchants' and Mechanics', $100,000. The company leading the list is L. B. Carle and Son, whose assessed valuation is $151,200, and next in line is J. M. Bostwick and Sons, whose assessment is $138,940.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Monday, October 12, 1863.—Dinner at $20 a plate, with wine at from $12 to $20 per bottle, are now of frequent occurrence in the great and wicked city of New York. Stock gambling pays the bills.

The Copperhead Meeting.—As some of our readers are aware, Mr. Wakeley, the copperhead candidate for Attorney General, and G. B. Smith, of Madison, addressed a meeting of the pretended democracy at the court room, on Saturday evening last. There were, perhaps 150 persons present, including a half dozen ladies and a considerable sprinkling of Union men.

Mr. Wakeley was the first speaker and commenced by asserting that Mr. Brough, the Union candidate for governor of Ohio, had threatened that if Vallandigham was elected governor of Ohio, his inauguration would be forcibly prevented, and the state would be drenched with blood. No such threat has ever been put forth by Mr. Brough. Geo. B. Smith followed with one of the most disgusting tirades of falsehood and treason to which it has ever been our lot to listen to.

The Situation in Missouri.—The rebel guerrillas, under Shelby and Coffey, appear to have possession of all Southwest Missouri. They are tearing up the railroad track at California, 25 miles west from Jefferson City, and have burnt a large bridge at Aberville. They have burned the towns of Cole Camp, Benton county, Florence, Morgan county, Hamansville, Polk county, and Greenfield Court House. Sedalia is thought to be safe. Gen. Brown is supposed to be in the rear of the rebels, and Gen. Totten commands at Sedalia. Booneville is threatened and guerrillas have robbed localities three miles from Pilot Knob. The whole state is in danger, and loyal families are everywhere fleeing from destruction. Where is the state militia, petted by Schofield and Gamble, and paid by the nation? If they cannot protect their own from marauding robbers, let them be mustered out, and a national force sent there, under a commander who is not afraid of hurting rebels.

In Australia it is summer in January and winter in July. It is noon there when it is midnight in Europe. The longest day is in December. The heat comes from the north, the cold from the south, and it is hottest on the mountain tops. The swans are the black, the eagles are white, the bees do not sting, and the birds do not sing. The cherries have no stones; the trees give no shadow, for their leaves turn edgewise to the sun and some of its quadrupeds have a beak and lay eggs.

BANK CASHIER GOES TO PRISON
Iowa Falls Man is Arrested Charged With Stealing $30,000.
Iowa Falls, Iowa, Oct. 12.—Edwin O. Soule, lately removed as cashier of the Home Savings bank, has been arrested on the charge of larceny by embezzlement. On arraignment in the justice's court Soule asked a continuance of the case for preliminary hearing. In default of $10,000 bond he was taken to the county jail at Eldora. It is charged that Soule is short in his accounts and it is reported that the amount is $30,000. Soule came from Monmouth, Ill., about seven years ago and has borne a good reputation. Speculating on the Chicago board of trade is given as the cause of his downfall.

Oct. 15—"Peck's Bad Boy."
Oct. 17—"The Gamekeeper."
Oct. 20—Richard Carle in "The Tenderfoot."
Oct. 21—Entertainment by local talent, under auspices of G. A. R.
Oct. 27—Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin."
Oct. 31—Andrew Robson in "Richard Carvel."

The Medford, Wisconsin Star says "Alexander Bros. Plantation Minstrels who occupied the boards at the opera house last night are away up in G. Their entertainment is refined and first class in every particular. Their music is good, their singing is good and their dancing is out of sight. In fact, it is the best show that has visited Medford for a long time. They were received by a large audience and it would have been larger had the weather been favorable."

The Washburn Itemizer says: "Alexander Bros. Plantation Minstrels who held the boards at the opera house last Monday night is the biggest little show that ever visited this city. They are all right. The concert given by the Alexander Bros. Plantation Minstrels at the hall, Wednesday night, was all that could be asked for in the way of a minstrel show. The playing was good and the dancing first class. Langford on the tambo was perfection. There were many specialties which deserve mention, and especially that of C. M. Holland in crayon drawing while playing a cornet solo, baton leading by Chas. Johnson and the Palmer house waiters guide. The entertainment was good all around and deserves a liberal patronage wherever they appear.—Warren Enterprise.

Peck's Bad Boy.
The Leroy J. French Peck's Bad Boy company, now playing a three days engagement at the opera house are giving the people plenty of amusement and their money's worth. While this play has been on the road 20 years, it was never produced in such a creditable manner in this city before. Mr. French has certainly gauged the public right in finding what they want and giving the same. The company is a well balanced one. Certainly Mr. French is to be congratulated on his good judgment in selecting his people. The company consists of singers equal to any ever seen in a comedy at the opera house.

Special mention should be made of A. Chester Taylor as the poet; Cogan as Duffy; Bill Williams as Max Shultz, all of which in addition to their regular work presented pleasing specialties. Miss "Zelda" played the part of Henry Peck, but the one who captured the whole audience was Gertrude Warren, an Australian vocalist, who is the possessor of a highly cultivated voice. Her selections were popular and rendered in a most pleasing manner. Mr. French presents a comedy quartette, and it is worth the price of admission to listen to them alone. Matinee and evening performance today. Daily Sunday, St. John, N. B., Friday, July 17, 1903. Here Wednesday.

ARCHBISHOP KAIN NEAR HIS END

Physicians Give Up Hope of Further Prolonging His Life.

Baltimore, Oct. 12.—Archbishop Kain's condition took a serious turn for the worse Saturday night, and he has been steadily declining ever since. Sunday afternoon he was seized with a chill, which left him very weak. He evidently realizes that his end is near, and said farewell to his secretary and the various attendants. Since then he has been barely conscious, and the physicians have given up hope of longer prolonging his life.

WHAT AILS SHEFFIELD?

The old city of Sheffield, England, has long been noted for high grade cutlery. A Sheffield knife or razor was its own guarantee and for years the annual export of this class of goods to this country amounted to some $12,500,000. Of late, however, the product has dropped off, and last year the volume of exports only amounted to $5,000,000.

The American Economist, devoted to the interests of American products and labor, asks the very pertinent question, "What Ails Sheffield," and then proceeds to answer, copying as a text the following item from the Springfield Republican:

"There seems to be at hand a very practical, homely, prosaic little illustration of what ails Sheffield. An experienced barber in this Massachusetts city a short time ago was asked to sharpen two razors, one made in Connecticut and the other made in Sheffield. The razor was new and had been bought on the representation of a reliable dealer that it was the best English razor in the market. The Connecticut razor was older, and had been bought as a good, trustworthy piece of steel. But the English razor was supposed to be the superior one. After working the two razors down to a fine edge, and using both several times in shaving, the barber reported that the Connecticut razor was undoubtedly the harder, better instrument in all respects. And that is what ails Sheffield. It is no longer making the best goods."

The Economist then goes to say that America established her cutlery industry through the protective tariff and then claims that better facilities, and better paid labor places American goods at the head of the list, and that Sheffield, as well as many other foreign competitors, has been obliged to retire from the field. The Journal then publishes a comparative table of wages paid, and says:

In this connection it will be interesting to take a glance at the wages which cutlery receive in England and the United States. From the Fifteenth Annual Report of the Commissioner of Labor, devoted to wages in commercial countries, we find that in England, combining the average of several reports, the wages of cutlery are about 60 to 70 cents a day. The lowest noted is 45 cents a day, while the highest is $1.25; but the report, which comprises the largest number of returns, shows the average to be about 70 cents a day, or less than $1.50 a week. The reports from the United States show that in New York wages run from $1.73 to $2.70, or an average of $2.03 per day; that in Michigan the average was $2.50 a day; that in Ohio the average was $3 per day from one series of reports and $2.73 from another; that in Connecticut the average was $1.73. We may safely take the whole average at not less than $2.10 to $2.25, or three times the wages of the English cutlery.

It would be fair to presume that a man earning $2 a day or more could turn out much better work than a man earning 70 cents per day, particularly when working eight or nine hours a day, against ten or more hours abroad. If the Protection given to our cutlery is not the reason for the better product, it is at least for the better wages, and the better wages most certainly tend to produce better knives and razors.

The fact of the matter is that the Sheffield workingman, like the Liverpool, Birmingham and London workingman, is half starved, without ambition and with only a desire to get through his work and lay his head on a pillow, if he is so fortunate as to possess one. What ails Sheffield is free trade, the same malady that afflicts every other manufacturing center in Great Britain, and what ails America is protection, which makes good wages, good cutlery and good men."

This is the whole argument in a nutshell and it furnishes poor consolation to men who are howling about the injustice of a protective tariff.

MORE COTTON IN THEIR EARS.

It is not at all likely that any part of the country held by the Republican party will chance a repetition of the experience of the years between 1893-6. Whatever the Northwest contributed to the election of Mr. Cleveland was paid for in the contribution of the years that followed. It is eminently true that the conditions have changed, brought about by the protective tariff policy of the Republican party, which has spread plenty and prosperity over the Northwest, with the rest of the country. All the western states that ran amuck on Populism have returned to the Republican party, and it is not reasonable they are now going to stand for Cleveland or any other man who "has a moderate leaning toward tariff revision"—not at this time, at any rate. If to refuse to interfere with the present prosperity is "stubborn deafness" on the part of Republican leaders, then it would be well to stuff more cotton in their ears.—Wheeling "Intelligencer."

The college girls of Kansas appear to have caught the Carrie Nation spirit. Seventy-five of them engaged in a cane rush in front of an audience of 500, in the college chapel, the other day. Tables and chairs were smashed, gowns torn to pieces, eyes blackened, and modesty demoralized. It is possible to be disorderly without being drunk.

The people of this country according to Secretary Shaw, consume 95 per cent of all we produce. That means that the home market is the best market in the world. A few live Yankee agents ought to be able to dispose of the five per cent surplus to the old world and not work over eight hours a day at that.

The cash balance in the United States Treasury September 30th, was $380,000,000. At the close of the last democratic administration the nation was running on borrowed money to the extent of $165,000,000. It makes all the difference in the world as to who handles the reins of government.

The value of farm products is estimated at $1,000,000,000 more than last year. This in spite of the "rubber tariff," and calamity howlers.

The national debt was reduced $6,000,000 in September. That's a good showing for a month when Wall street is counting losses by the hundreds of millions.

American labor is a friend to the protective tariff, and will continue to be so long as memory is able to point the picture of enforced idleness, and soup house existence.

REPORTORIAL GLEANINGS
 Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark and son of Chicago are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bidwell of Chatham St. Regular Meeting: Regular meeting of the W. R. C. Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Crystal Camp: Crystal Camp, No. 122, R. N. A. will meet in regular session at West Side Old Fellows hall Wednesday at 7:30.

The Schumann club has arranged for two piano recitals to be given Nov. 3rd and 10th. The first by Miss Dela Talh, a teacher in the Bush Conservatory of Chicago. The second by Mr. Howard Wells, a well known Chicago pianist. These recitals are not open to the public, but are given before the club members and a few of their friends.

OBITUARY

Willard Robinson
 The funeral of the late Willard Robinson was held from the home at half past nine this morning. Mrs. Jeffris and Miss Edwards sang and Rev. Denison officiated. The remains were sent to Spencerport, N. Y., for interment.

John McBride
 John McBride died at the Milwaukee Soldiers' Home yesterday. He was a former resident of this city, and lived on Milton avenue for a number of years. He was about seventy years old and for the last five years has been a resident of the Soldiers' Home. The remains will arrive at Milton tonight and be taken to his nephew's home in that town. The funeral will be at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning from Will McBride's home and from St. Mary's church in this city at 10:30. The Rev. Father McBride will officiate and interment will be at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

PRESS COMMENT

Superior Telegram: When Switzerland comes to the World's fair next year, it will be meeting of the oldest and biggest republics.

Madison Democrat: Newport dispatches say the duke of Roxburgh is making himself "popular." It is easy under the circumstances.

Marquette Eagle Star: Even massacres have pulled upon the American palate and something more excitingly different is demanded of the daily papers.

Oshkosh Times: A good many men have given up their lives for Old Glory. It ought to be good enough to go anywhere in the land it shelters.

Green Bay Gazette: Perhaps the sultan is holding off those reforms in hope that his soldiers can get all the Macedonians killed before the powers reach the limit of their patience.

Sheboygan Telegram: Of course, if Mr. Clark, of Ohio, is elected to the United States senate he will avert the industrial and financial panic which he is predicting for the country.

MACHINES BEING PUT IN POSITION

U-PIN-IT MACHINES HAVE ARRIVED IN THE CITY.

STOCK ISSUED ON WEDNESDAY

The New Factory Will Move Its General Office to Janesville at Once.

Janesville is now the scene of the U-Pin-It Hook and Eye company, late of Chicago. Not only has the factory and its machines been moved to Janesville but before the end of the week the general offices of the company will be moved from the Monahanock building, Chicago, to the Woodruff factory at the corner of Ravine and Franklin streets. Already three machines have been brought from Chicago and are in place at the factory merely waiting for the expert machinist from the east to put them in place.

All Ready
Mr. Mills is now in the city and says although all the stock is now subscribed he will continue to sell a few more blocks of stock to Janesville people. So many inquiries have been made at the two banks where the stock is open to subscription for the stock certificates that he has decided to leave the stock banks at the two banks and they can be obtained by the subscribers upon application at either the Bower City or Rock County National bank after Wednesday morning. Many persons who have not hitherto subscribed are now anxious to do so and will have the opportunity.

Machinery Here.
The three hook and eye machines arrived over the North-Western road on Saturday last and were this morning taken to the factory. Here they will be set up at once by expert machinists from Chicago and Waterbury having been sent for to start everything properly. Within a month the other twenty-seven machines will be in working order and by the first of next month the full output of the factory will be tested to fill the orders now on hand.

Samples Exhibited
Samples of the novelties to be manufactured beside the hooks and eyes are now on exhibition in the Rock county bank. These are many and varied and fully illustrate the real worth of the factory. They are novelties that find ready sale upon the market and the demand for them is very keen. Mr. Mills is now looking the ground over for employees for his factory, but expects to experience no trouble.

MRS. CANTILLON BURIED, SUNDAY

Funeral Was Held from St. Patrick's Church—Largely Attended by Friends of the Family.

The funeral of Mrs. Cantillon, wife of James P. Cantillon, assistant superintendent of the Ashland division of the Northwestern road, was held here Sunday and was one of the most largely attended funerals ever witnessed in Janesville. The Rev. James McGinley conducted the service at St. Patrick's church. Banks of flowers covered the coffin and decorated the nave of the church.

A Janesville Woman
Mrs. Cantillon, whose maiden name was Ella Ryan, was born in Janesville, but had lived for many years in Chicago. She was married eight years ago. For several months she has had heart trouble, and her death Friday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ryan, at Duluth, was not unexpected.

Many Officials
When it was learned in Milwaukee and Chicago that the funeral was to be held at Janesville, preparations were made by a number of Northwestern road men to attend, as several members of the family have for years been connected officially with the Northwestern road. In the morning a special train left Milwaukee at 9 o'clock, returning at 4:30.

Many Present
The relatives present besides the husband and her parents were W. D. Cantillon, general superintendent of the Northwestern road; Michael Joseph and Miss Katherine Cantillon, Chicago; and Mrs. E. M. Hyzer, Milwaukee.

Pallbearers
The pallbearers were P. J. O'Brien, assistant division superintendent, and R. H. Johnson, superintendent of terminals, Chicago; W. H. O'Brien and M. E. White, conductors of Milwaukee; J. W. Doyle, Boone, Ia.; Alexander Johnson, general freight agent, Winona, Minn.

Those Present
Others present were T. A. Lawson, assistant general superintendent, Chicago; J. D. Cuttridge, trainmaster; E. M. Hyzer, M. J. Whalen, M. J. Kearney, Thomas H. Kearney, Patrick Gallagher, conductors; D. W. Callahan, W. P. Crowsgrove, J. F. Hickey, H. M. Finn, James McCall, L. D. Qualle, Thomas S. Meagher, J. Egan, S. F. Graves, D. Van Hecke, J. H. Moody, Peter McCann, D. E. Diamond, T. McGuire, E. P. Abbott, F. E. Barnes, F. J. McQuinn, R. J. Kelly, J. J. Welch, P. Kane, F. Kane, T. B. Leahy, A. J. Johnson, E. L. Tracy, R. J. White, J. C. Tracy, J. M. Abbott, E. P. Abbott, C. H. White, Joseph New, J. J. Leahy, A. H. Smith, W. H. O'Neill, R. E. Treonon, T. W. White, H. C. Eberline, J. W. Cryster, T. J. Crowley, M. Otto Nurnberg, William F. Arens, George B. Vilas, William C. Schultz, Charles Thompson, Sylvester Sykes, Miss Scott, all of Milwaukee; W. L. Lyon, Antigo, and Johnson A. Jackson, Kenosha.

Palmistry—A "Crafty Science"
In the recent New Jersey case of State vs. Kenilworth, a conviction for practicing palmistry was confirmed under the act concerning disorderly persons, the pertinent language of the act being: "All persons who shall use or pretend to use, or have skills in physiognomy, palmistry, or the crafty science shall be deemed and adjudged to be disorderly persons." This provision has been a part of New Jersey's law since 1799. In delivering the opinion of the court, Judge Dixon said: "If ever there shall be discovered any national evidence that palmistry is a real science, its use for honest purposes will pass beyond the range of this statute. It is a crafty science, that is, one by which the simple minded are apt to be deceived." 54 Atlantic Rep. (N. J.) 244.

Intoxicating Liquors
A wholesale liquor dealer, who advances money to a saloon keeper to open up a business, and who went with the saloon keeper to the mayor of the city to make negotiations to be allowed to engage in the business, and, failing in that, notified the mayor that they would commence selling liquors, and was present in and about the saloon when illegal sales were made, and was in fact the chief beneficiary of the business, was equally guilty with the saloon keeper of an illegal sale, though the sale was made in the name of the saloon keeper. 75 Southwestern Rep. (Tennessee, Judge Wilkes) 1920.

VAST SUMS FOR STATE COFFERS

INHERITANCE TAX LAW MAKES INCOME FOR WISCONSIN.

BIG ROCK COUNTY ESTATES

Valuation of Nearly Two Hundred Thousand in This County Already

Some conception of the great income which will go into the coffers of the state by the operation of the new inheritance tax law may be gained by looking over the figures shown in the register at the Rock county court room. Since the law went into effect the last of March and up to the present time, seven estates have been brought with the court's jurisdiction and these amount to nearly two hundred thousand dollars in total valuation. To be exact, money and property estimated as worth $128,500 is subject to a tax levy of from one to five per cent, or more. It is estimated that the tax to be collected from this sum will amount to between two and three thousand and from this county alone and the law has only just come into force.

Much Annually
If the same gain continues for the second six months of the year Rock county will alone contribute to the state in the neighborhood of from $5,000 to $8,000 annually under the inheritance law.

Milwaukee County
Milwaukee county will probably contribute five or six times that amount and the other counties will bring up the total easily to one hundred thousand or over. Many of the legal fraternity are discussing as to whether or not the legislature was fully aware of the large amount of money which this law would produce and as to whether or not, it would stand the test of an attack in the supreme court upon constitutional grounds.

The Section
Section 41 of the laws of 1903 which picks out which beneficial interests may be taxed, in what manner they may be taxed and for what amount seeks to make out the difference between blood relation and strangers to the decedent. It appears that a husband, wife or lineal issue or ancestor may take property upon which a tax of only one per cent is collectable, while an adopted child of mutually acknowledged standing of parental relationship for less than ten years, and all step children, must pay a tax of five per cent on property in which they have beneficial interests. It is for these reasons that the new law is found fault with as causing in some cases, a hardship, if not an injustice and its lack of uniformity. It is claimed by some weakens its constitutionality.

Good Sized
The values of the estates thus far listed in the county, in pursuance with the new law vary from five to thirty-five thousand each.

FINE ART DISPLAY

Mr. Tillisch Arrives at Miss Capell's With Norwegian Embroidery.

Norwegian embroidery is something new in the fine art line in Janesville, and the Janesville ladies should avail themselves of the opportunity to see and purchase some piece of the many beautiful articles on display at the home of Miss Capell, 155 South High St. Perhaps the most exquisite article in the collection is a robe or coat cover in Akkade; this robe is woven and hand-dyed, is of fast washable colors—red, white, blue and green, woven in small blocks. It was purchased by Mrs. Harriet Jeffris. A cushion also in Akkade, is in hand sewed blocks of similar colors. A table runner in Holanger is a most beautiful piece of work. Green is the prevailing tint in these goods. Here one finds a face simile of a tapestry which hangs in the museum at Christiania and bears the date 1770. One sees here a peasant chair decorated in free hand painting, done by the only person in Norway who does this style of work. A green and white cushion hand-sewed is on Marley—a beautiful material of rather coarse weave, and all these goods are washable. A very beautiful shirt waist front and collar, bridal style, in colors on a material called Sultan, is another of the noticeable articles. This display is very beautiful and must be seen to be appreciated. Mr. Tillisch will be in the city until Tuesday night.

PROMOTION FOR D. D. MAYNE

WAS FORMERLY SCHOOL SUPER-INTENDENT IN JANESVILLES

HAS BEEN MADE PRINCIPAL

Will Be at the Head of the Minnesota School of Agriculture.

D. D. Mayne, for nine years superintendent of schools in this city and lately of Madison, has been elected principal of the Minnesota school of agriculture. The Wisconsin Journal of Education speaks very highly of him, as follows: "For twenty years he has been a successful teacher in Wisconsin's public schools, rising by successive steps from the district school to the head of the educational interests in Janesville later, Ishpeming, Mich. He has been president of the Southern Teachers' association, the city superintendents and supervising principals' association, state director of the N. E. A. and has twice appeared on the program of the National Educational Association. As an author Mr. Mayne is known principally in connection with his works on agriculture, being joint author with Prof. E. S. Goff and Hon. W. D. Hoard, of First Principles of Agriculture, and has just completed a text of his own on the same subject. A special Geography of Wisconsin, Office Methods and Business Practice, and the Modern Business Speller, are also the product of his energy. "Mr. Mayne has had a thorough normal training at Platteville and spent his early days on the farm, which makes him an ideal man from the standpoint of education and experience for the principalship of the Minnesota School of Agriculture, to which he went October 1. These qualities combined with an enthusiastic nature, his gentlemanly and courteous manner, and his passionate love for the teaching work means that Minnesota is to gain what Wisconsin loses—a man, an educator of the highest rank."

"Success to you, Mayne, is the wish of your host of friends in the Badger state."

An eight-pound baby girl arrived at the home of D. F. Ellis Saturday night.

LOSE MILLIONS THROUGH FLOOD WATER ABOVE FORMER RECORD

Embankment Holds Firm and Keeps River Within Bounds, Preventing Great Disaster—Houses Are Swept Away by Torrent.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 12.—After two days and two nights of the keenest anxiety, the people of Paterson experienced their first relief Sunday night when the raging flood in the Passaic river began to abate.

The danger is not over by any means, for the water is still higher than the record made in former floods, but it has already receded twenty-eight inches, and is dropping at the rate of one inch an hour. Still the torrent beats against the narrow embankment of Spruce street hill, already weakened by crumpling, but this is holding firm and stands between the city and disaster. The guards feel reasonably sure of its permanency, though prohibiting access to it for fear that it might be undermined.

City is inundated. Below the falls a large part of the city, situated in the valley on either side of the river, was still inundated, but the waters were receding rapidly.

Thousands of persons are temporarily homeless, most of them being received at the houses of friends in the unflooded districts, while 1,500 were sheltered at the armory, fed and cared for by the organized charity of the city. No assistance has been asked from outside and the city will look after its destitute.

Many persons who had remained in their homes in the flooded districts were removed and food was conveyed to those who remained, the fire department rigging up emergency lines from roof to roof, with cars suspended thereon for this purpose.

Loss Exceeds $2,000,000. It will be impossible to closely estimate the loss until the flood subsides, but it will exceed $2,000,000.

Only three bridges and part of a fourth of the seven below the falls remain, and the cost to the county to replace those destroyed will be at least $500,000. The three bridges standing are completely covered by water.

Only three fatalities have been reported. Seven men who had been imprisoned in a dyehouse on the river margin since Friday without food were rescued by Charles and Leopold Mutter in a small boat. The Mutter brothers also saved Capt. William Clark and John Dreen of the fire department, who had been upset in an earlier attempt at rescue. Three tugs were necessary to bring all to the shore.

Buildings Collapse. Boatmen assisted the firemen and police in removing the inmates of the flooded houses. A gun used in shooting life lines to the roofs of burning buildings was borrowed from Newark and employed.

Many buildings have collapsed and the foundations of many have been weakened by the flood and some of these may fall.

On account of the exposure of many of the sufferers to the downpour of cold rain last night an epidemic of pneumonia is feared.

Passaic is a greater sufferer from the flood than even Paterson. Twenty mills in Passaic alone are under water and 5,000 workers are out of employment. Ten thousand persons have left their homes. Eight hundred houses are flooded to the eaves, and in all 1,000 acres are covered with water from a depth of a few inches to twenty feet. Several million feet of lumber have been carried down to Newark bay.

Houses Float Away. In Westport the Erie tracks are suspended in the air, the twenty foot embankment having been washed away.

REAL NOURISHMENT FOR ALL.

Mi-na Makes Thin People Fat—Peoples Drug Co. and King's Pharmacy Will Return Money if It Fails.

Every one needs real nourishment then comes good health, strength and endurance. Without it, you waste away. Nearly every one eats food enough to furnish the necessary nourishment for the perfect support of life, but the food is not assimilated and there follows indigestion, weakness and emaciation. A few days' use of Mi-na, the wonderful flesh-forming food, will demonstrate its power to furnish real nourishment and restore health. Mi-na mingles with the food you eat, aids assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and puts the whole system into proper physical condition.

By its use, the elements needed to increase flesh are assimilated from the daily food and each week will show a noticeable gain in weight.

King's Pharmacy and Peoples Drug Co. knows of many cases of long standing stomach troubles, some of them very bad, that were entirely cured with Mi-na. The thin and scrawny have used this preparation and by its aid have gained real nourishment. King's Pharmacy and Peoples Drug Co. feels that they can honestly recommend Mi-na and as evidence of their faith in the merit of the article, offers to sell it with the distinct understanding that the money is to be returned in every case where it fails to do all that is claimed for it. You risk nothing in buying Mi-na, and if it gives the desired health, the cost is trifling, only 50c a box. If it fails King's Pharmacy and Peoples Drug Co. will pay for the remedy out of their own pockets.

away. Twenty-three story frame houses have gone floating down the Passaic river, and as far as can be estimated the loss of city property, real estate and buildings, is $2,000,000.

It was feared that the Dundee dam, at Passaic would give way. That would have relieved the river at Paterson at the expense of the cities below. Fortunately Dundee dam is still intact. The smeltering in Wallington and Duttonville has been great, as no relief has been able to reach these places. All through this district houses and outbuildings, together with a great quantity of dead stock, are floating about.

Twenty-five bridges are down in Passaic and Sussex counties on the Susquehanna Railroad.

WILL STUDY ALASKA'S WEALTH

Parties in Government Charge to Investigate Coal and Oil Resources.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 12.—The United States geological survey will send parties next year to investigate the mining resources of southeastern Alaska, the formation in the Yukon country and the oil deposits in Alaska. It is intended to study the geology of the Nome district, especially in reference to the coal district. The Copper river country also is demanding investigation, but it is not likely any work will be done in that district next year.

There is a race war in the hotelkeepers' union between white and black organizations and the difficulty has tied up important work.

MULE RESENTS TAIL TWISTING

Maddened Brute Runs Away, Killing Husband and Wife.

Flovilla, Ga., Oct. 12.—John Laster, his wife, Ella Laster, and John King got drunk here and getting into a buggy started home. Soon after setting the mule in motion the woman leaned over the dashboard, caught the mule by the tail and began twisting it. The animal made a dash and, wheeling suddenly around a corner, threw the occupants from the vehicle. The woman's head struck the big iron spike in a telephone pole, which penetrated her brain, causing instant death. Laster was knocked senseless and died for his injuries. King escaped injury and has not been seen since the accident.

Chicago Has New Dairy Laws.

The Chicago city council has just passed some new and stringent laws relating to the milk traffic. There has been for a long time much complaint of the very loose way in which milk was bought and sold in that city. Its handling was often conducted under conditions that were likely to make milk a conveyor of disease. Moreover, in some of the poorer localities the milk sold for whole milk was both skimmed and watered. In many cases it was so nearly sour that its use for child ren's food resulted in much sickness and some mortality.

The new laws create a milk and food department in the board of health. One of the most startling innovations is the rule that all cans containing skim milk shall be painted bright red. This is because the sale of skim milk has been largely conducted under the pretense of selling whole milk. It is not desired to prevent the sale of skim milk, but only to prevent its sale as unskimmed milk. The cleanliness of cans and other milk-holding utensils is to be rigidly enforced.

Mixtures of any two or more of the following articles is prohibited: Whole milk, skimmed milk, cream, condensed milk and buttermilk. Cans containing any one of the foregoing are required to be labeled in three-inch letters. The caps of bottles are similarly required to be stamped. The test provided for milk is 3 per cent butter fat and 9 per cent other solids, a total of 12 per cent solids. For cream the minimum fat must be 15 per cent. No skim milk can be sold if it contains less than 8.5 per cent of solids, including butter fat. Watered milk, adulterated milk and impure milk will not be permitted to be sold at all, nor can the milk be sold from cows diseased or kept in a filthy condition or fed on slops or refuse. Any attempt to sell such milk will result in a fine of from $5 to $200. Impure or condemned milk must be destroyed. Cow stables must be washed daily and diseased animals must be kept away from the well ones. Refuse matter must not henceforth be stored in dairies.

As a notice that the laws adopted Monday last are to be enforced, the milk inspectors on Tuesday seized twelve cans of watered milk and poured their contents into the gutter. The men that sent them cannot be fined, as they are outside the jurisdiction of the city. It is doubtful, however if they send any more watered milk to Chicago.

Errors in Milk Testing.

Professor Eckles of the Missouri station says: If cream is tested by measuring out with the 17.6 c. c. pipette, as is done with milk, the reading will be too low for two reasons. The basis of the Babcock test is 18 grams. The 17.6 c. c. pipette delivers this weight of milk, but as cream is more adhesive than milk, a considerable amount will stick to the pipette. In sour or thick cream this error may be as much as 1.5 per cent. This error is easiest removed by filling the pipette about one-third full of warm water, shaking to loosen the cream from the sides, then adding this to the cream in the bottle. The other cause for error is on account of the lightness of the cream, as compared with milk. A 17.6 c. c. pipette full of cream does not weigh quite 18 grams, the regulation amount, but somewhat less, depending upon the richness of the cream. If it is necessary to have an exact test of cream, it can be obtained best by using delicate scales and weighing out the desired amount. Scales especially arranged for this purpose can now be purchased at a reasonable price. The temperature at which cream bottles are read is of great importance. A difference of over 1 per cent can be made by changing the temperature from 110 degrees to 180 degrees; extremes often met with in various testers. The exact temperature at which reading is correct has not yet been determined, but should be somewhere about 120 degrees. The best way to get bottles at a proper temperature is to set them in a pan deep enough to bring the water up near the top of the bottle.

Grading Up.

From Farmers' Review: In grading up a herd I start with ordinary cows, but always with a full blooded sire and, by the time his get is old enough for breeding, I change my sires, only using the same one two years. By the eighth cross you have as near a full blood as can be, unless it be a thoroughbred. For a general purpose cow I would rather have the cross, my choice for a general purpose cow being the Durham.—L. H. Allen, Clinton County, Michigan.

To Keep Milk Cans Clean.

From Farmers' Review: On return of cans from factory, empty at once, wash cans thoroughly with warm water, then put in boiling water, put covers on, let stand five minutes, empty and wipe dry, put in sun and let stand until milking time, rinse with cold water and use. In case the cans should be sour, add a teaspoonful of soda to the boiling water.—H. H. Morrey, Van Buren County, Michigan.

SIXTEEN ARE HURT IN WILD CAR

Motorman Leaves Port and Coach Is Ruined at Bottom of Hill.

McKeesport, Pa., Oct. 12.—Sixteen people were injured in the runaway of car No. 9 on the Bryn Mawr division of the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Connellsville electric road. The injured are: Mrs. Laura Sidelman, Bryn Mawr, caught under car; cut and bruised by glass; hurt internally; will die. Daisy Kline, Cumberland, Md., 8 years old; left leg broken and hurt internally; will die. The accident was caused by Motorman John Carr leaving the front platform. Conductor Householder did not know of his absence and released the rear brake. The car ran down a hill, crashed into the curb and was demolished.

MAYOR MENKE FIGHTS OUSTER

Mattoon Executive Insists He Can Retain Office.

Mattoon, Ill., Oct. 12.—Mayor F. M. Menke will make a desperate effort through the courts to prevent his being ousted from office, but he already is out if the action of the city council is of any force. Alderman J. A. Brown has been named to fill the office until a new mayor can be chosen by special election. Judge Henley refused Menke a new trial.

Soldiers in Riot.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 12.—During the street car strike soldiers from Fort Sam Houston attacked non-union car crews and chased them from their cars. Later a mob attacked a car that was guarded by deputy sheriffs. One officer shot and dangerously wounded Henry Mockert.

Illinois Mine Strike Likely.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 12.—The mine operators and halting engineers, who have been in joint session here, adjourned without reaching an agreement and the engineers, numbering 650 in the state, will strike Nov. 1 unless their terms are granted.

Juneau-Sitka Cable.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 12.—The Alaska cable from Juneau to Sitka has been completed and an office has been established at the capital city. The Burnside left Sitka, paying out cable south. It will lay a 400-mile stretch towards Seattle.

Prison for Dr. Brownfield.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 12.—Dr. J. C. Brownfield, who figured in the Jesse Morrison case at Eldorado as a witness for the defendant and got himself prosecuted in consequence, will have to go to the penitentiary.

Strange Currency.

In Dahomey, according to a French official report just issued, the currency is cowrie shells, of which a sack of 20,000 is considered the equivalent of $5. Seven hundred cowries are worth about 2 1/2 d.—London Answers.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Janesville. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. you cannot ask for better proof than such a conclusive evidence.

Mr. Samuel Griffin of 203 Locust St. Journeyman carpenter says: "I had a severe attack of la grippe and as a result weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, annoyed me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about the result."

OVER 20,000 SHARES SUBSCRIBED

FOR IN TEN DAYS.

The U-Pin-It Hook and Eye Company gives you one more opportunity to secure some of its stock at the very low price of 50 cents per share. The money now invested in our business will be used in building additional machines, advertising U-Pin-It Hooks and Eyes, extending our trade and increasing our facilities for manufacturing. The par value of our stock is $1.00 per share and is fully paid and ABSOLUTELY non-assessable. We will guarantee to repurchase the stock one year from this date at 55c per share (just 10 per cent. advance) if the investment does not prove satisfactory, but we confidently believe it will be worth more than $1.00 per share within one year.

... A Statement of the Company's Profits ...

PRESENT CAPACITY	COST OF PRODUCTION	SELLING PRICE	PROFITS
Per day, 200 gross	$100	$250	$150
Per year, 60,000	$30,000	$75,000	$45,000

Our Ten New Machines when completed will give us the Following Results:

Per day, 700 gross	$350	$875	$525
Per year, 210,000	$105,000	$262,500	$157,000

Estimating the office expenses, cost of advertising, etc., at 50 per cent of the profits, with only our present capacity, there should be $22,500, net profits to pay out on a capital of $250,000 next year, just 9 per cent on our capital stock. If you purchase stock at 50c a share, you would be receiving 18 per cent on your investment. By adding ten machines the dividends would be increased, as the above figures will show, to 31 per cent on the capital stock or 62 per cent on the investment. These figures do not include the profits made on our horse blanket pins and mail order business.

In figuring the profits on ten machines, it is not to be understood that we will not need more than this number, for we need ten additional machines now. The DeLong Hook and Eye Company have over 50 machines in operation and employ about 200 people in their plant at the present time.

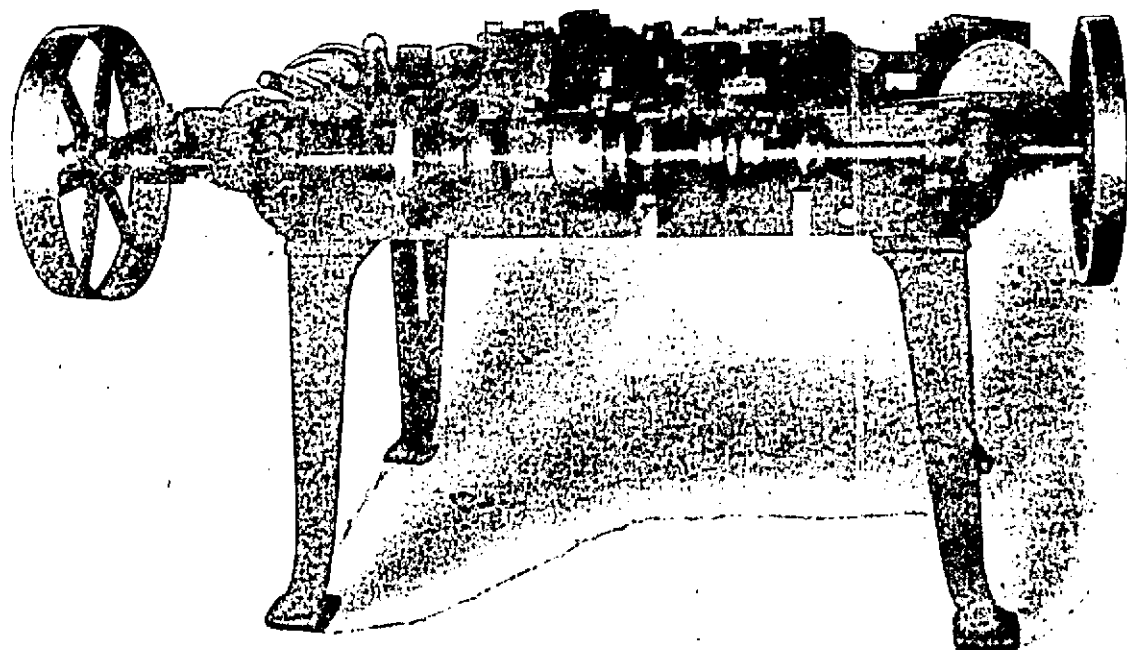

Thirty-three and one-third per cent of the women who have given the U-Pin-It Hook and Eye a practical test have actually endorsed it; this means that of the 6,000,000 gross or more of hooks and eyes manufactured and sold every year, we will be the producers of at least 2,000,000 gross on which we make a profit of 75 cents to the jobber and $1 to the retailer.

We are informed that the manufacturers of the 'Hump' Hook and Eye, to be sewed on, have made over $1,000,000 in profits in the last few years. Their stock has been recently quoted at $10 per share—par value $1.

We are the inventors and sole manufacturers of the U-Pin-It Hook and Eye, the only Hook and Eye in the world that positively does away with sewing.

It is not in the least improbable that shares of stock, which are purchased for 50c per share, will within two or three years be worth from $2 to $3 each. As a profitable investment for the individual purchaser of U-Pin-It stock, this will, therefore, need no further emphasis than that we CONFIDENTIALLY BELIEVE this advanced figure will be realized. On the basis of "public spiritedness" the location of our factory in Janesville and the general benefit of the enterprise to its citizens and vicinity will be apparent to you.

Those Subscribing For Stock Now will be given an option to purchase more shares after our factory is established and running. Some of our machines are in the Woodruff building now and will soon be in operation.
 Applications received at the Bower City Bank and the Rock County National Bank, where our references are on file and where our Hooks and Eyes and different specialties which we manufacture can be seen.
